

Double Degree Program:

Universidad de los Andes with Nova SBE

Duration of DD:

3 semesters

Degree program at EESP-FGV:

Finance

Degree program at Nova SBE:

International Master in FinanceApplicability: 2018/19 this document prepared 31 Jan 2018

Applicants must have a “high score” in the GRE, PAEP, GMAT, or EXADEP (choice is at the discretion of the school).

table 4: CHRONOLOGY OF THE STUDENT for the 2018/2019 cohort
Semester 1 in Bogotá		Credits	completed	ECTS earned
Investments		4	(4 UniAndes credits = 7.5 ECTS)	7.5
Corporate Finance		4		7.5
Financial Econometrics		4		7.5
Computational Methods in Finance		4		7.5
Term paper see note below		0
Total for semester 1 (at UniAndes)		16		30
1 week in January in London		ECTS
London Immersion Week (Financial Markets) (replaces the Area C and Area D PDMs at Nova)		1		1
Semester 2 at Lisbon
Financial Modeling		3.5
Empirical Methods for Finance		3.5
PDM-Area A Advanced Bloomberg		0.5
PDM-Area A Excel (no credit) and must obtain “Expert” Certification		0
PDM-Area B Ethical and Professional Standards		0.5
PDM-Area C (waived with London Immersion Week)		-
PDM-Area D (waived with London Immersion Week)		-
3rd Language		0
Electives		21
Work Project (Nova SBE format, with joint advisors) Deliver WP in early June or in early September		30
Total for semester 2 + London		60
Semester 3 in Lisbon or Bogotá
Student may enroll at either school for the Fall semester to continue developing the WP, and defend it in December (or January) at the school where located
Total		90

Term paper note: by the end of the first semester, the student must have completed a Term Paper (supervised by a member of the UniAndes faculty) that will serve as the basis for the Masters Work Project. Topics shall be limited to Banking, Corporate Finance, or Financial Markets – or cross-related areas.